

Health Data Specialists, LLC

Richard

Georgia

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE:

- Over 12 years experience managing, implementing and maintaining complex healthcare systems and architecture.
- Technical Project Manager with the ability to recognize and overcome hurdles in an IT environment to accomplish what is needed throughout all facets of operations.
- Strong Cerner experience across multiple solutions
- Successful in team building and managing multiple personality types.
- Extensive experience in building and supporting a domain strategy.
- Proficient at Service Pack installation, monitoring code movement, and testing coordination.
- Excellent regression testing, quality assurance, flash review, and change control skills.
- Managed and supported multiple release upgrades.
- Excellent analytical skills to discuss problems, analyze solutions/options, evaluate and enable improvement of processes.
- Strong communication skills including verbal and written
- Able to travel to multiple sites and locations

ENGAGEMENTS:

- PHNS – Maryland
- Adventist Health Systems – Maryland

EDUCATION:

- Masters in Information Systems
- B.A., Psychology and Communication

YOUR HEALTHCARE INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY PARTNER

13919 River Road, One American Place, Suite 240, Luling, LA 70070 ♦ Phone: 877-308-1018 ♦ Fax: 504-617-6550
www.hds-llc.com

Health Data Specialists, LLC

Richard

Georgia

EXPERIENCE SUMMARY:

Domain Architect

- Provided oversight including development and management of an enterprise wide domain strategy for a healthcare system in the process of a multi-phased Cerner Millennium implementation
- Manage/monitor change control process
- Review, track and coordinate the installation of vendor flashes and code updates
- Coordinate regression testing of system updates
- Collaborate and manage relationships with vendor, solution teams and technical team
- Coordinated vendor support and maintenance of primary patient care system.
- Responsible of ongoing system performance and stability with help of assigned technical team members.
- Work within IT to create appropriate organizational and operational structure to support and manage Cerner Software. This included Host Technologies, End User Computing Technologies, High Availability, Operations, and Disaster Recovery.
- Prepares and monitors technical work plan including definition of tasks, task dependencies, estimates and resource requirements.
- Works with Cerner to co-ordinate and manage all installation activates, adjust hardware needs, capacity planning exercise, and budgeting for equipment acquisition as and when applicable.

Technical Project Manager

- Managed implementation, training and support of Cerner's HNA Millennium applications including RadNet®, PharmNet®, PowerChart®, Scheduling, CareMobile®, PowerChart local Access(PCLA) and other ancillary services components for a 500+ bed regional healthcare facility.
- Coordinated all Cerner mass migrations from development through production.
- Responsible for planning, installation, and testing of all cumulative production and cumulative support packages via Environment Manager
- Liaison between technical and clinical teams.
- Identification of timeframe for various technical events and work with Cerner counterpart to schedule appropriate resources.
- Management of multiple RS/6000 AIX nodes.
- Responsible for application and hardware maintenance, improvements, and upgrades of applications, OS, and Oracle.

YOUR HEALTHCARE INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY PARTNER